Hanley William: Farmland, dingle and waterfall.

OUR STORIES IN LIVING HISTORY: TEME VALLEY SOUTH

LENGTH: 1.9 miles

1. Leave the churchyard by the back metal gates.

Turn left and go through the farm gate. Continue ahead to the stile to the left of the barns. Continue over a further stile to Hanley Court.

2. Bear right to follow the bridleway, which is signposted.

After passing the Court, take the stile on the left not take the metal gate in front of you. Bear left to go into the next field and follow the line of the fence down to the edge of the wood. On reaching the wood, turn left (don't take the gate into the wood that faces you) and continue to a gate and stile.

3. The gate and stile are above a waterfall into the dingle.

Take the footpath sign on your left and work your way round the fields (keeping the hedge on your left) to reach the top of the incline.

4. The path leads to a stile onto the drive to Hanley Court.

Turn right and follow the drive to the Lodge where you turn left on the road and back to Hanley William Church.
