OUR STORIES IN LIVING HISTORY: TEME VALLEY SOUTH

LENGTH: 3 miles

1. From the entrance door to the church, turn left to walk through the churchyard and out of the metal gate.

When you meet the road, turn left and walk along the road. Follow the public bridleway signposted on the left. When paths meet, bear right to follow the bridleway.

2. Cross the field, keeping the boundary on your right.

Go through a wooden gate and cross another field. Continue straight ahead to cross another field. Go through the wooden gate and carry on. Go through a metal gate and continue walking, keeping the field boundary on your right.

3. Go through the wooden gate on the right.

4. Go through the wooden gate.

Take the stile straight ahead of you and head up the hill. Bear right and take the stile. Continue and take the stile on the right into the wooded area. Walk to the top of the incline, bearing right, until you reach the road. Turn left and continue along the road. Turn right to follow the signposted bridleway.* Go through the wooden gate and carry on. Go through another wooden gate. Enjoy the views across the valley on your right.

5. Take the wooden gate and continue.

Look out for a break in the trees, where the grassland and bridleway bears around to the right. Following this bridleway, walk down the hill. Continue past the farm to meet the road. At the road continue downhill until you reach the church.
