Dear Readers

I have just had a week off and spent it at home, a 'staycation'. As I spent the days enjoying working and relaxing in the garden, I got to thinking about how much warmer it was this time last year and the holiday season that is ahead of us.

Our summer holidays and winter ones too take us off to far flung places in search of new adventures, quaint places, relaxing views and perhaps the opportunity to share in local customs. We plan and research and having decided on the destination we do a little itinerary of what we want to do and see, what to pack, the books to read and maybe even a map. We head off searching for something that will delight and sustain us until our next holiday.

Our journey of faith can be like that. We plan and think we know where we are headed. We set out seeking to find what will sustain and fulfil us. We think we know where we are going but then God opens our eyes and we begin to see things differently. We discover something amazing, something that jolts and surprises us.

This is what happened to me; I was pootling along working in wildlife conservation and looking forward to retirement. Then five years ago I got confirmed. During Covid lockdowns, I spent a year doing the Bishops' certificate course. I thought that was probably enough for any new Christian to cope with. However, it turned out that God's plan was a little different to mine.

The next stage on the journey saw me on discernment for Licensed Lay Ministry (Reader) training. One year into this and I get another diversion on the journey as Worcester Diocese launches its 'Auxiliary Pathway to Ordination'.

What an adventure! One never quite knows where the path of life will lead us. So as you set off on your holidays this year, may it be a fulfilling and sustaining time and may you be blessed to see God in action in the world and in your lives.

Parish news

From the Registers

Baptisms

We welcome to our church family Thomas William Adams and Hayden Michael Gilbert whose christenings were held on 19th May at St Peter and St Paul church, Eastham.

Marriage

Congratulations to Stennard and Kate Harrison who were married at St Mary's, Stanford on Saturday 25th May.

We wish them every happiness and a long and happy marriage.

Deanery service

The Summer United Deanery Service of Holy Communion will be at Hartlebury Castle on Sunday 7th July at 10am. The service will be held outdoors (with the Great Hall reserved in case of wet weather) so remember to bring your own chairs. The main celebrant will be Archdeacon Mark Badger, together with our two newest priests in the Deanery, Rev'd Jen Jones and Rev'd James Homer. Jen and James are due to be ordained at Worcester Cathedral on Saturday 29th June.

There is free parking on site and the Castle will be open for toilet facilities. Afterwards, if you wish to stay, you can picnic in the grounds or make use of the refreshment facilities at Hayley's Kitchen. If you plan to stay for lunch please book ahead separately with the Kitchen restaurant. If you can't be present in person we hope to be able to livestream the service on our facebook page.

The collection on the day has a children's theme and will be for Acorns Children's Hospice and UNICEF.

Teme Valley Tots

The group meets weekly in Rochford Village Hall on Fridays from 10.30am to 12 noon. Our last meeting will be on 19th July and then we will take a break for the summer. It is with a mixture of sadness and pride that we wave goodbye to those of our group who will be heading off to full time nursery or school in September. It has been a delight to watch you grow and develop in your time with the group.

Iona inspired services

There will be no service in July – with lots of wonderful local events to support. The steering group will meet on 23rd July and are planning for more services later this year. Details to follow.

Annual churchwardens' admission service

Our churchwardens, Edward, Celia, Ann and Alexandra, will be admitted to their office for the year by Archdeacon Mark at Great Malvern Priory on Thursday 11th July at 7.30pm. You are most welcome to go along and support them. We wish them many blessings as they serve our communities and God's Church in the coming weeks and months.

Rochford News

Rochford Garden Party

The Rochford Garden Party in the beautiful garden at Rochford House was a great afternoon. Very special thanks to our hosts Simon and Victoria Thornley and to Ann for all her work in preparing a wonderful afternoon tea. Many thanks to everyone who supported the event and all those who helped to make the afternoon so enjoyable.

Rochford Fête

Rochford fête, flower festival and fun dog show will be held on Sunday 14th July. The flower festival will be in the church and the fête will be held on the riverside field next to the church by kind permission of Dr Lear and the Adams family. The flower festival will provide a lovely addition to the afternoon and an opportunity to decorate our beautiful old church.

This is a quintessential village event with stalls and games, cream teas, a cake stall, grand draw, tombola and, to end the day, a duck race down the river.

It is always an enjoyable afternoon with a range of stalls and competitions where you can relax and catch up with friends and neighbours over a cream tea. Bring your dog along and take part in the fun dog show.

Please let us know if you can help with this event or if you can provide any donations for the cake stall, tombola, white elephant, plant and book stalls.

Live music is back!

Live music with supper is back in Rochford village hall on 21st September. We are pleased to have another local covers band with a wide repertoire of well-known songs from across the decades. Get the date in your diary.

Eastham Coffee Morning

The next Coffee Morning will be on Wednesday 3rd July at 10.30am at Eastham Memorial Hall. Come along and have a cup of coffee, win a raffle prize and have a catch up. There is no special activity for July – we are having a rest. For August we will be collecting goodies for the fête – bottles for the tombola and anything else in advance.

Wednesday 3rd July – Stella and Tony Wood

Bingo

Thanks to everyone who came, helped and donated at the Bingo Night on 8th June. Over £460 was sent to Birmingham Children's Hospital, a great result.

New pictures for the Memorial Hall

Entries are invited for pictures of Eastham to be judged in the summer with the winners being made into canvases to decorate the hall. Get snapping. More to follow.

Race Night

Come along to Eastham Memorial Hall on Saturday 6th July at 6 for 6.30pm and support a night at the races. The races will run on the big screen – just like being at Ludlow or Worcester but a lot cheaper! Good fun in convivial surroundings. Snacks and a cash bar. Contact Tammy on 07747 638976 by phone or text to book a place. Proceeds to Eastham Memorial Hall.

Sidney Michael Wyse

We would like to introduce Sidney Michael Wyse to Eastham. Sidney was born on 24th May 2024 at 00.17 weighing 7lb 6oz. Mother and baby are doing well, and big sister Caitlin is very proud. Although she wanted a sister she wouldn't change Sidney for the world now.

Michael Wyse, Kirsty Mebrius & Caitlin Wyse

The bells are ringing ...

The Eastham church bells were rung on 6th June, the 80th anniversary of D-Day. Hearty thanks to the ringers, Julie Hartridge, David Jenkins, Paul Bradley, Ian Matravets and Matty Matravets. Over 40 people enjoyed a drop of bubbly and cucumber sandwiches, listened to the bells and remembered the anniversary.

A 20-year old Jim Froggatt explains his part on the day on page 174 of the Eastham Millenium book – he would have been 100 on 15th April.

The next bell ringing at Eastham will be on 18th August at around midday when the Lilleshall Bell-ringers will ring a quarter peal (roughly 45 minutes) in memory of the Wylde family – Ron, Gordon and Donna. Thanks to Julie Hartridge.

Pub Night

Eastham Pub Night will be on Friday 19th July at 7pm at Eastham Memorial Hall. Make a date to catch up with others and get updates on the fête. Watch out for the usual banner.

Fête, Produce Show and raffle

You should have your produce show schedule by now. If not, or to find out about helping or donating, please contact us on easthamfete@gmail.com.

The raffle for cash prizes is one of the best money earners at the fête and you can't win if you don't get a ticket. The more you buy, the better your chance! Please collect from and return books and takings to Celia Adams (01584 781258) – plenty to sell, make sure you have your quota.

Storage area extension

Work starts during July on the extension at the Memorial Hall. All activities will continue as usual and as booked whilst the work proceeds.

D-Day Anniversary

Thanks to committee members and handymen for making the hall look so welcoming. (Did anyone spot the new windows?) The newly acquired field was well prepared and provided car parking space and plenty of room for the children to chase around and the dogs to greet each other. I'm particularly pleased that not one bit of rubbish was left.

The fish & chips didn't disappoint, not forgetting the mushy peas! You really missed a treat if you weren't there. The bar was well stocked with Spilsbury beer and cider and Sarah had clearly been busy baking!

The celebrations culminated with the lighting of a beacon, timed to partner with many others around the country. Many thanks to Jason and Ed Yarnold for giving permission to hold the event on their farm.

Art class

The woodland bluebell theme of the recent art class was a big success enjoyed by everyone who attended. Jim's amazing work was on display at the D-Day Anniversary too.

Songs of Praise and Strawberry Teas

On Sunday 28th July at 4pm at Hanley Childe church. Please join us at our beautiful church for songs of praise and scones with strawberries and cream – and bring the children too!

Wedding bells

On Saturday 25th May the wedding took place at St Mary's church of Stennard Harrison and Kate Walton. It was a lovely day. Rev'd Julia Curtis officiated and the church was beautifully decorated with lovely flowers. There was fabulous singing by the Teme Valley Churches Choir led by Chloe Kenrick and accompanied by Milada on the organ. The bells could be heard courtesy of the Martley Bell Ringers which added to this lovely occasion. The sun shone on the happy couple and we wish them every happiness for their future.

Hello

Just a few words from your new churchwarden. My first week was a busy one, assisting with the holy communion service, the Ascension Day service on 9th May and the Thy Kingdom Come service on 11th May. I learnt a lot about my new role in a week! I hope to hear from you about new ideas and anything you would like to see happening in Stanford.

Harvey Merrick

Harvey died on 5th April. He was born at Powke House, Stoke Bliss in February 1940 and attended Kyre School. In 1950 his parents moved to Upper Villa in Hanley Childe, and soon afterwards Harvey was taken very ill and admitted to Birmingham Children's Hospital where doctors decided to remove his spleen. He slowly got better although he had a year off school. He returned to Tenbury Secondary School and stayed on for an extra year to catch up.

When he left school he worked for Dan Slater and then for Mr Barber at Underley Farm. As a keen churchgoer he soon took on the role of Sunday School teacher and would help at services if a vicar was not available.

He was a keen collector. Initially he collected coins and then when rock'n'roll came on the scene he collected a lot of records and managed to get a ticket to see The Beatles at The Bridge in Tenbury.

When his father died he worked part time at his job and farmed at Upper Villa.

With passing time his mother's health deteriorated so they moved into Tenbury. Following his mother's death he retired but kept his hand in at Mawley Town farm until he was attacked by a bull which led to his full retirement.

His help at the village hall and at garden fêtes was invaluable, he just quietly got on with what was needed.

An episode of shingles left him partially disabled and needing home care. At the beginning of April he became very ill and died shortly afterwards.

Put the date in your diary
NOW for the

56th Eastham Fête and Flower Show

on Sunday 18th August at 12 noon
A fabulous afternoon of family fun!

That time has come around again, so sort out those unwanted books and bric-a-brac, pamper your plants and practise your baking. We have plenty of challenge cups waiting for a new home!

See the schedule for classes and please contact us on 01584 781505 or easthamfete@gmail.com if you have not had a copy or if you would like to help out on the day.

Starting at 12 noon, the annual fête will be held in and around Eastham Memorial Hall where there will be as well as teas and plants for sale, the well-supported produce show and many other stalls and attractions not forgetting the popular tombola (donations please!).

So why not make a day of it?

There will be

Barbecue food and a bar and other food stalls and plenty of activities to keep the whole family entertained. With parking and entry free it's a great way to have an affordable afternoon.

This year we have more tents than ever so even if the weather is bad you can come along and stay dry – and the Chase Brass Band is back again.

Preparations start the day before when we will be putting up tents and marking out the site. If you have time and are feeling strong please come along and help. We'll be on site from morning until it's all done.

The fête raises funds for the Memorial Hall and the church each year and is Eastham's biggest fundraising event, so come along, have fun and at the same time support the village, meet up with old friends and make some new ones.

We hope to see you there!

Don't forget – Sunday 18th August, 12 noon to 5pm

On the trains at Kyre and book stall – well done everyone. For all who came along to support us, I hope you had a lovely time and thank you for giving so generously. We made £1,088, truly an amazing amount.

Another successful fundraiser was Norman Wanstall's Oscar Talk which Tina Edwards kindly held at her home. It's always a treat to listen to Norman reminiscing about his fascinating career on the James Bond films. He won Audrey Thacker from Wolferlow is helping to raise money for this year's St Michael's Hospice Conquer the Camino Campaign. On 11th May she held a Train Day at The Hyde in Stoke Bliss. Here's Audrey's story:

We had a the most perfect afternoon on the little trains at Kyre, in glorious sunshine with apple blossoms at their best. It really was a beautiful day. Very grateful thanks to the Darnley family for allowing me to have this opportunity, to all the railway boys for all the hard work they put in to make the day possible, to my friends for making cakes and helping with the teas, a very good tombola the first Oscar for a James Bond film at the 1964 Academy Awards in the category of Best Sound Editing for the film Goldfinger. His talk raised a further £150.

In October I'm joining 19 fellow trekkers on the final 100km of the Camino de Santiago de Compostela (the way of St James) in northern Spain. So far this year's campaign has raised a total of £31,616. A perfect day for perfect gardens

Roses – roses were everywhere, bright white ones, decadent red ones, full blown deep orange ones – and hollyhocks, foxgloves, dahlias, every kind of cottage garden plant you can imagine in every colour, bursting exuberantly out of beds and shrubberies, dropping their petals on manicured lawns and wild flower meadows. Magic woodland walks, hidden burbling streams, ponds, shady bowers to sit and admire the view, views over the beautiful Teme valley – and, most amazing after so much rain, glorious warm sunshine all day.

Stoke Bliss Open Gardens on 16th June was a perfect day and the four gardens were an inspiration. It was good to see so many people visiting them and enjoying them during the afternoon – many thanks to the hosts who had worked so hard to make their gardens stunningly beautiful.

Very many thanks too to everyone who helped in the organisation, who made posters and flyers, planned the tickets, made delicious cakes and scones and endless pots of tea, sold plants – and of course to everyone who came to support the event.

The final total was a magnificent £823 which will be shared between the village hall and local churches.

Ludlow Rotary Club Fun Dog Day

At 10am on Sunday 28th July the gates of Stokesay Court will open for a fun-packed day for dogs and their owners and admirers at the start of another Ludlow Dog Day. For the event's tenth anniversary year, Ludlow Rotary Club will be welcoming back inspirational displays and helpful training tutorials which dog owners can try at home as well as holding a wide range of fun dog competitions and activities.

Held in the beautiful grounds of Stokesay Court, approximately six miles north of Ludlow and just off the A49, the day is all about fun for the whole family, particularly our furry friends. Dogs can take part in over 21 competitions, from the scruffiest mutt and waggiest tail to the cutest puppy.

There are have-a-go events including dog agility, flyball, and hoopers, while gun dogs will be able to demonstrate their ability to retrieve ... or not!

Demonstrations throughout the day include past favourites such as the Paws for Thought Display Team and Bliss Gate Dog Obedience Team alongside All Positive Dog Services with hoopers, loose lead and learn a trick and scenting training.

As well as the doggy events, there will be plenty of stalls to enjoy, selling dog and country related goods or pampering to human needs such as food stalls, the drinks bar and the popular tea tent.

Money raised in past years has enabled Ludlow Rotary to distribute over £140,000 amongst a wide range of charities and community organisations. The club plans to use this year's event to support Ludlow Rotary Cares, the club's community grants scheme, as well as other deserving causes.

For more information on this opportunity to enjoy a wonderful day in a glorious setting while supporting numerous community and charitable needs, see www.ludlowdogday.org.uk.

Stanford History Group presents The History of Some Interesting Things

A warm welcome awaits you at the Stanford History Group which meets on Monday evenings in autumn for two hours at Sapey Village Hall. We are a diverse group with an interest in understanding the past, to better appreciate today and how we got here! Our lectures have been very well attended – last year we averaged over 48 people attending across the 10 lectures, but there's plenty of parking!

This year we have another interesting program of 10 lectures in five subject areas – you can come for any one or all. We have expert lecturers from Birmingham and Worcester Universities.

- History of the Levant and its peoples
- Women's suffrage
- History and development in cancer and vaccinations
- The different economic outcomes for several under-developed countries
- Racism in the USA

Do come and join us – there's coffee, biscuits and discussion too! We start on Monday 30th September at 7.30pm, £60 for the 10 lecture course or £10 per lecture, payable at the door or by bank transfer.

My first love

Today, 18th June, the TemeTalk deadline, is also Paul McCartney's birthday. He's 82. This date is a fact which has lived in my head since 1962, when they released their first record and I fell in love. I was 13. Paul was the one I fell in love with – I thought John looked a bit dangerous, although I came to love him too, later.

At my school you had to choose between the Beatles and the Rolling Stones. My friends and I all liked the Beatles. We thought the girls who liked the Stones were a bit rough.

When I was 14 I went to Guernsey with my mum for a holiday and she bought tickets for us to see the Beatles at the Candie Gardens on 8th August. I remember being in the venue surrounded by screaming girls, but I was struck dumb, totally inhibited and embarrassed by my mother who was sitting next to me. They sang She Loves You and Twist and Shout and I swooned (silently) with happiness.

Afterwards I queued at the stage door and got their autographs, which I've kept ever since in my underwear drawer. The Boss would like me to sell them, but although I was there and I saw them, I still have a nagging feeling that the signatures might be fakes and my disappointment 61 years later would be too much to bear.

... the girls who liked the Stones were a bit rough

I loved Paul for many years. I wanted to marry him, of course, but if I couldn't have him I thought Jane Asher would do. I wasn't sure about

Linda but she did make him happy. I think I fell out of love with him when he married Heather Mills and started dyeing his hair. But I still have a tiny place in my heart for him. I hope he's happy now with some woman called Nancy.

John Lennon's birthday is also lodged in my head. The first time I visited my son David in Manhattan, in 2005, he took me to a bar and the man sitting next to me was telling anyone who would listen that it was John Lennon's birthday. "No it isn't," I told him. "It's tomorrow, 9th October."

The following day David took us to Strawberry Fields, the little bit of Central Park dedicated to John, just across the road from the Dakota Building where he was shot dead in 1980. It was full of people singing, playing guitars and remembering him on his birthday. It was strangely moving.

My favourite Beatles film is A Hard Day's Night. When it came to my local cinema in 1964 I went to see it every day for a week, on my own and secretly.

Teme Valley Wildlife

On the way to visit some neighbours last month, I noticed an attractive plant with white flowers spilling out onto the side of the lane. I bent down for a closer look, thinking that it might be a cultivated form of wild comfrey, when I was startled to see a group of large hairy black caterpillars munching their way through the leaves. Like the plant, the caterpillars, which sported bright yellow stripes and white dots, were unfamiliar to me. Thankfully, my neighbours knew what they were. They had been seeing them in their own garden, first as tiny specimens in the winter, increasing in size over the spring, then pupating and finally emerging as scarlet tiger moths. These colourful insects have become increasingly common and are on the wing during the day in June and July.

The tiger moth famously gave its name to a pioneer biplane, but which of the different varieties gave rise to the comparison I do not know. In the West Midlands six different tiger moth species have been recorded but four are rare. The ruby tiger and scarlet tiger moths are the two most likely to be seen. The former is largely red in colour whilst the latter is more striking, having black forewings with white and cream spots and red underwings with black spots. I shall be on the lookout for a glimpse of one of these handsome creatures.

The scarlet tiger moth has only been present in the Midlands for fifty years. It was first noted in the Wye valley and then recorded in the Malvern Hills in 1973. It has gradually moved north and west where it seeks out comfrey, green alkanet, hemp-agrimony and nettle as its caterpillar food plant. I don't grow the first three, but my numerous nettles will, I hope, be enough of an attraction.

Wild comfrey is a tallish perennial plant which has roughly oval hairy leaves and strings of purple, pink or cream flowers. It likes to grow in damp places and was once used medicinally for healing broken bones. It became very popular during the 1970s when organic gardening first became popular and latter-day Bob Flowerdews sang its praises as a natural fertilizer. Clumps of the leaves soaked in water can be turned into a useful liquid feed for use in the garden. Perhaps the rise of comfrey-growing has helped to spread the scarlet tiger.

Other plants handy to attract moths to your garden are rosebay willowherb and fuchsia for the elephant hawk-moth, foxgloves for the foxglove pug, verbascums for the mullein moth and marjoram and mint for the small purple and gold moth. Don't forget, though, that they will make holes in your plants.

On a different subject altogether, I took part in a walk around Little Hereford in the middle of May and a participant from Yorkshire spotted a red squirrel. These animals are more common there, so hopefully this was a genuine sighting. Do keep your eyes peeled in case this lovely mammal has returned to valley.

The next meeting of the Teme Valley Wildlife Group is at 7.30pm on Thursday 11th July at Stoke Bliss and Kyre village hall. We welcome Phil Playford for a talk on bats. Phil has previously led an excellent bat walk around Ludlow which was much enjoyed by our members. Everyone is very welcome and it is just £3 on the door.
